Your Website Walkthrough

Here's a quick look at each page of your website — what it does and why it matters for your readers and your ministry.

Home Page

The first thing visitors see. Designed to captivate immediately with beautiful imagery and a clear path to your book.

- Rotating photo carousel of your author photos — cycles automatically with smooth transitions
- 3D book cover display that tilts when visitors hover over it
- A floating "Order BEHOLD!" button so the purchase option is always visible
- Scroll animations that bring each section to life as readers explore
- Preview sections for the blog, about you, and devotionals

The Book

The dedicated page for BEHOLD! — everything readers need to learn about the book and decide to purchase.

- Floating animated book cover at the top of the page
- Reader's Journey — a 4-step visual path: Discover, Study, Reflect, Share
- Format options (hardcover, paperback, e-book) with thumbnail previews
- Purchase links ready to connect to your retailers

About Christine

Your personal story — helping readers feel connected to you as an author.

- Your bio sharing who you are and what drives your writing
- The "God Stops" story — the moments that shaped the book
- A curated photo gallery with 3 images showing your personality
- A quote banner featuring your own words about creation

Study Devotionals

All 20 devotional studies from the book, beautifully presented as numbered cards for easy browsing.

- Each devotional is numbered and titled in its own card
- Perfect for small group leaders looking for study material
- 3D book cover at the top ties everything back to BEHOLD!
- Call-to-action at the bottom encourages visitors to get the full book

Blog

A powerful tool for reaching new readers. Comes pre-loaded with content and ready for you to add more over time.

- 9 blog post cards covering faith & science, devotional life, and creation
- Category filter tabs: Faith & Science, Devotional, Creation, Teaching, Family
- Featured post spotlight at the top
- Newsletter signup to capture emails and grow your audience
- 3 full-length articles already written and ready to read

Contact

Makes it easy for readers, event organizers, and media to reach you.

- Clean contact form for direct messages
- Speaking & Events section for churches, retreats, and book signings
- Quick-access contact info cards

What's Next

Your website is ready to go! Here are your next steps:

1. Explore your site — Visit www.becaptivatedbooks.com and click through every page. Take your time.

2. Send us your feedback — If you'd like any text, photos, or layout changes, just let us know.

3. Share your purchase links — Once BEHOLD! is listed on Amazon or other retailers, send us the URLs and we'll connect them.

4. Start sharing — Post your new website on social media, add it to your email signature, and share it at speaking events.

"Every detail of creation is a reflection of the Creator's character, design, and love. When we truly behold the world around us, we encounter the hand that made it all."
