Welcome to Your Website

Christine, your website has been built from the ground up to reflect the heart of BEHOLD! Captivated by the God of Creation. Every color, image, and word was chosen to draw visitors in and help them experience the same wonder you write about.

This walkthrough will take you through each page so you can see exactly what your readers will experience when they visit becaptivatedbooks.com.

"Every detail of creation is a reflection of the Creator's character, design, and love."

What Makes This Site Special

Your website isn't just a place to buy your book — it's a ministry tool. Here's the thinking behind the design:

- Nature-inspired design — Forest greens, warm golds, and soft creams create a feeling of warmth and wonder that matches your message.
- Beautiful photography — Your author photos rotate in elegant carousels, giving the site life and personality.
- Easy to navigate — Readers can find the book, devotionals, blog, and contact info in just one click from any page.
- Works on every device — Whether someone visits on their phone, tablet, or computer, the site looks great.
- Built to grow — Blog posts, newsletter signups, and speaking info help you build your audience over time.

Your Website, Page by Page

Let's walk through each page together. Here's what your visitors will see and why each piece matters.

Home Page

This is the first thing visitors see — and first impressions matter. Your home page is designed to captivate from the very first second with a rotating photo carousel, your book front and center, and clear paths to explore more.

- A rotating hero carousel of your author photos cycles automatically, giving the page life and warmth
- The book is showcased with a beautiful 3D cover display that tilts when visitors hover over it
- A prominent "Order BEHOLD!" button floats on screen so visitors can always find where to buy
- Smooth scroll animations bring each section into view as readers explore down the page
- Preview sections for the blog, about you, and devotionals invite visitors to go deeper

The Book

This is the dedicated page for BEHOLD! It gives readers everything they need to understand what the book is about and decide to purchase it.

- A floating animated book cover greets visitors at the top of the page
- The Reader's Journey — a visual 4-step path (Discover, Study, Reflect, Share) — shows readers what to expect
- Format options (hardcover, paperback, e-book) are displayed with thumbnail previews
- Purchase links are ready for you to connect to Amazon, Barnes & Noble, or any retailer
- A beautiful call-to-action section at the bottom encourages readers to take the next step

About Christine

This page tells your story. It helps readers feel like they know you — your heart, your journey, and why you wrote this book.

- Your personal bio shares who you are and what drives your writing
- The "God Stops" story gives readers a window into the moments that shaped the book
- A photo gallery ("Christine's World") shows 3 curated images that bring your personality to life
- A quote banner features your own words about creation and the Creator
- Ends with a book call-to-action so readers can go straight to learning about BEHOLD!

Study Devotionals

All 20 of your book's devotional studies are presented here as beautifully numbered cards. This page makes your devotional content accessible to anyone visiting the site.

- Each of the 20 devotionals is numbered and titled in its own card
- The layout is clean and inviting, encouraging readers to work through each study
- A 3D book cover at the top ties everything back to the book itself
- Perfect for small group leaders looking for creation-centered Bible study material
- A call-to-action at the bottom encourages visitors to get the full book

Blog

Your blog is a powerful tool for reaching new readers and keeping your audience engaged. It comes pre-loaded with content and is ready for you to add more over time.

- 9 blog post cards covering topics like faith & science, devotional life, and creation
- Category filter tabs let readers browse by topic: Faith & Science, Devotional, Creation, Teaching, Family
- A featured post spotlight at the top highlights your most important article
- Built-in newsletter signup captures email addresses so you can grow your audience
- 3 full-length articles are already written and ready to read

Blog Articles (3 Full Posts)

Three complete blog posts are ready to go, each exploring themes from your book. These give your site real substance from day one.

- "Why Science Deepens My Faith (Not Threatens It)" — explores the harmony between faith and science
- "What Does It Mean to 'Behold'?" — unpacks the deeper meaning behind the book's core concept
- "God's Signature in the Salmon Run" — a beautiful real-world example of creation pointing to the Creator

Contact

This page makes it easy for readers, event organizers, and media to reach you.

- A clean contact form lets visitors send you a message directly
- Speaking & Events section showcases your availability for churches, retreats, and book signings
- Contact info cards provide quick access to your email and social links
- A book call-to-action at the bottom keeps the purchase option visible even here

You're Ready to Launch

Your website is built, polished, and waiting for you. Here's what comes next:

1. Review everything — Walk through each page and let us know if you'd like anything adjusted. Text, photos, layout — it's all flexible.

2. Connect your links — Once your book is listed on retailers, we'll swap in the real purchase URLs. Same for your social media profiles.

3. Set up your domain — Point becaptivatedbooks.com to your hosting provider and upload the site files. We can help with this.

4. Share it with the world — Post your new website on social media, include it in your email signature, and share it at events.

"When we truly behold the world around us, we encounter the hand that made it all."
